Unlock Your Potential through the Power of Music!

Mark Romero took that leap of faith as he walked away from a multimillion-dollar business. He had attained the level of success society set up for him with the money, fancy cars and nice home but he still felt within him a yearning not to have more but to BE more. He had an idea of what his dreams were, to become an inspirational speaker; however, life had bigger and better plans.

In his cutting-edge, entertaining and transformational programs, Mark shares his story of feeling lost and discontent, taking his passion of music to a new level and discovering extraordinary miracles along the way. He was able to tap into hidden gifts even he didn't know he had and now has the ability to help millions raise their conscious awareness, break through limiting beliefs and ignite their passion.

Mark is able to deliver his message with compelling stories infused with humor, wisdom and most importantly, his music. While on his journey, Mark's music was discovered by a former consultant from NASA to have specific frequencies that put listeners into a higher state of consciousness and help them to live healthier, stronger and more vital lives.
